SUCCESSFULL CELLO WEEKEND IN ZOTTEGEM

The second cello weekend in Zottegem was a success. On 3 March 2018 the numerous pupils of the Zottegem Academy prepared themselves for the closing concert, directed by their teacher Harm Garreyn.

On 4 March the audience was served up a few interesting concerts, lectures and masterclasses. During an aperitif concert Viviane Spanoghe and her former student Harm Garreyn performed among other pieces the Etude 'Marche pour la procession de Hal' by François Servais. Subsequently Viviane Spanoghe gave masterclasses to pupils of the Zottegem Academy. Peter François presented two lectures on Servais and the Belgian School of Cello Playing. Anna Reiter played the sixth cello suite of Bach and Mikayel Grigoryan played the solo sonate by Kodaly. The cello ensemble of the Zottegem Academy rounded off the day with a performance that was highly appreciated.
