VILLA SERVAVIS

Good news about the Servais villa: the building will be restored in the near future. The preparations are busy. Soon a team of Monument watchers will pass by for a few urgent interventions.

CD ALEKSANDRA LELEK

For its debut cd the Duo Ardente - Aleksandra Lelek (cello) & Maciej Zimka (accordeon) chose for Servais' Fantaisie sur deux Airs russes opus 13. It's the first time this work appears on cd, in a transcription for cello and accordeon, which seems to be a succesful combination.

HOMAGE CONCERTS IN JAPAN AND RUSSIA

On October 15 and 16 Japanese cellist Yutaka Hayashi organised two Homage concerts for Servais in Japan. On Saturday 5 November Russian cellist Michael Alenin will give another 'Homage Concert' for Servais in Moscow. He will play Servais' first and third cello concerto.

France and Belgium.

LOOKING BACK: FOUR DAYS WITH SERVAIS (7-10.04.2016)

From 7 to 10 April 2016 22 cellists were trained by the members of the Tansman cello Quartet in the Servais Academy. It was an international company with several nationalities: participants came from Brazil, Turkey, Albany, Spain,

LOOKING BACK: CELLO COMPETITION SINT-PIETERS-WOLUWE (6-7.05.2016)

On 6 and 7 May 2016 the fifteenth edition of the cello competition of Sint-Pieters-Woluwe (Brussels) took place.

The 'Edmond Baert prize' was not being awarded this year, but the second prize in the highest category (D) went to Noémi Siska. She also won the prize of the Fondation Feldbusch for the best performance of 'Mosaïque' by Eric Feldbusch. The third prize was awarded to Cyrielle Golin.

For the first time the Servais society offered a prize for the best performance of a Servais composition in category C - conservatory students between 14 and 18 years old. The prize was awarded to Nicola Pfeffer from Stuttgart.
