27.11.2016 - 8 PM: Second homage concert Servais 1866-2016

Servais was at the basis of the Belgian cello school. The present generation of teachers of the Belgian conservatories will play a concert at 8 PM in the Saint Martin's Basilica. They will perform compositions by Bach, Servais, Sollima and - as a world première!- a tribute composition to Servais by Benjamin Glorieux.

Performers:

Viviane Spanoghe & Anna Reiter

Benjamin Glorieux & Olsi Leka

La Cheville Affolée (Corentin Dalgarno, Marinela Doko, Marie Hallynck, Jean-Christophe Lannoy, Francis Mourey, Didier Poskin, Karel Steylaerts, Caroline Roeland).

19.11.2016 Toerne Mondiale

In Halle November is traditionally World Month. Since ten years Servais' statue is been decorated with a special construction in order to promote the Toerne Mondiale initiative (19 November). This year the theme is 'on the way' and the globe shows important moments from Servais' life.

On 19 November, images were projected at regular times on the historical town hall, accompanied by music from Servais.

20.11.2016-29.01.2017 Mini exposition 'The Servais family' in 'Den Ast'

In the inheritance office of 'den AST' a number of remarkable pieces are being exposed about the Servais family. You can see pictures, letters and records from Servais, his children, grand children and their descendants. Free visit during opening times of den AST, Meiboom 16, 1500 Halle (Wednesday to Friday 9 to 12 AM and 2 to 5 PM, Sunday from 2 to 5 PM) Take the opportunity to also visit the Regional Museum - with some extra Servais items! (1 euro discount by showing a ticket of the homage concerts).

"Servais s'avance sur la scène. On va jouer sans masque! Jusqu'à ne plus pouvoir saisir les cordes.
Ils étaient calmes et éblouissants. C'était ainsi. Une seule fois. Une dernière fois.
Ils saisirent leurs violons. Plus un souffle. Un silence comme une lame.
Et ils commencèrent à jouer."
